

New Items - April 2019

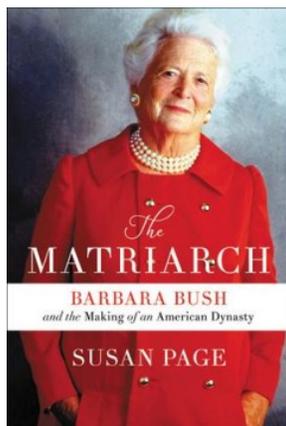

Non-Fiction:

The Mueller Report

by Washington Post

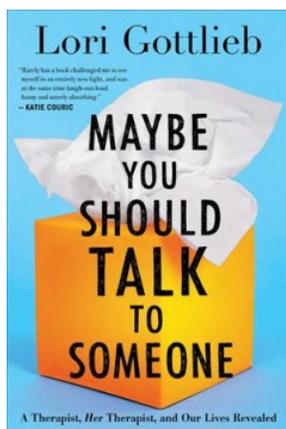

Presented with Related Materials by The Washington Post. Introduction and Analysis by Reporters: Rosalind S. Helderman and Matt Zapotosky

The matriarch : Barbara Bush and the making of an American dynasty

by Susan Page

Drawing on diary access and more than 100 interviews, a vibrant portrait of the former first lady by the Washington bureau chief of USA Today includes coverage of Barbara Bush's private struggles and remarkable political achievements. 100,000 first printing. Tour

Maybe you should talk to someone : a therapist, HER therapist, and our lives revealed

by Lori Gottlieb

The national advice columnist and best-selling author of toughLOVE presents a behind-the-scenes tour of a therapist's world from the perspective of both a patient and a psychotherapist who found answers in her client's journeys. 100,000 first printing. TV tie-in. Illustrations. Tour

Working : researching, interviewing, writing

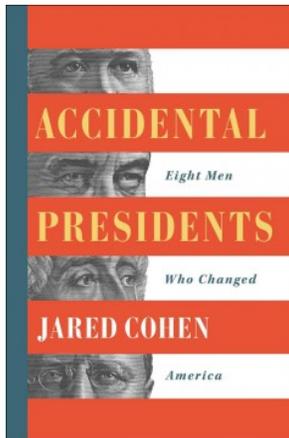

Robert A. Caro

Working

Researching, Interviewing, Writing

by Robert A Caro

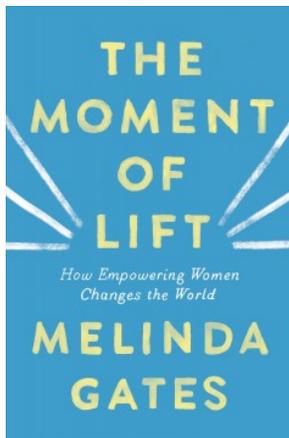

"Short autobiography about author's processes of researching, interviewing, and writing his books"

Accidental presidents : eight men who changed America

by Jared Cohen

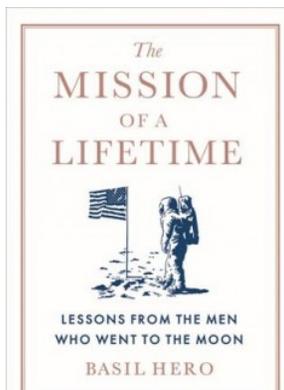

Illuminates the evolution of American presidential power through the unique lens of the eight successors to presidents who died in office, sharing insights into the significant historical contributions of leaders who came to the office indirectly. 100,000 first printing. Illustrations.

The moment of lift : how empowering women changes the world

by Melinda Gates

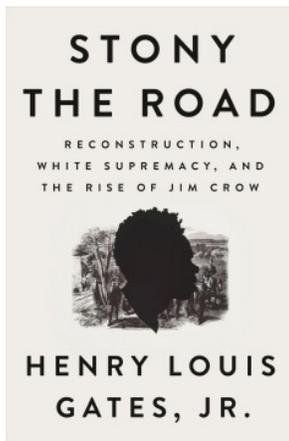

A timely call to action for women's empowerment identifies the link between women's equality and societal health, sharing insights by international advocates in the fight against gender bias

The mission of a lifetime : lessons from the men who went to the moon

by Basil Hero

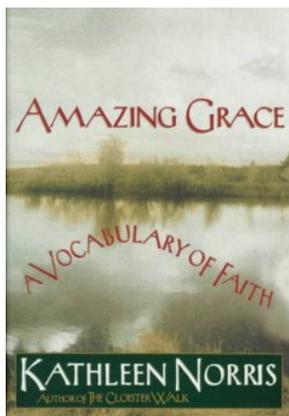

Collects words of wisdom from the twelve remaining lunar explorers, revealing the true source of courage and leadership that it took to accomplish their missions

Stony the road : Reconstruction, white supremacy, and the rise of Jim Crow

by Henry Louis Gates

"A profound new rendering of the struggle by African-Americans for equality after the Civil War and the violent counter-revolution that resubjugated them, as seen through the prism of the war of images and ideas that have left an enduring racist stain on the American mind. The abolition of slavery in the aftermath of the Civil War is a familiar story, as is the civil rights revolution that transformed the nation after World War II. But the century in between remains a mystery: if emancipation sparked 'a new birth of freedom' in Lincoln's America, why was it necessary to march in Martin Luther King, Jr.'s America? In this new book, Henry Louis Gates, Jr., one of our leading chroniclers of the African-American experience, seeks to answer that question in a history that moves from the Reconstruction Era to the 'nadir' of the African-American experience under Jim Crow, through to World War I and the Harlem Renaissance. Through his close reading of the visual culture of this tragic era, Gates reveals the many faces of Jim Crow and how, together, they reinforced a stark color line between white and black Americans. Bringing a lifetime of wisdom to bear as a scholar, filmmaker, and public intellectual, Gates uncovers the roots of structural racism in our own time, while showing how African Americans after slavery combatted it by articulating a vision of a "New Negro" to force the nation to recognize their humanity and unique contributions to America as it hurtled toward the modern age. The book will be accompanied by a new PBS documentary series on the same topic, with full promotional support from PBS"

Amazing grace : a vocabulary of faith

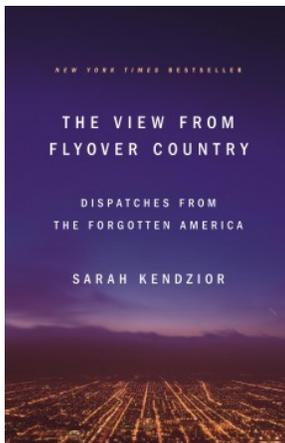

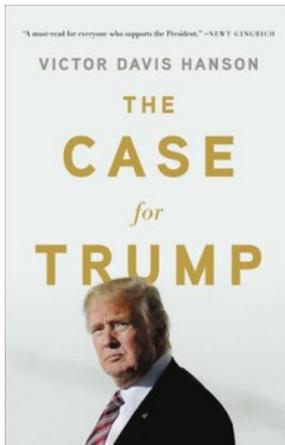

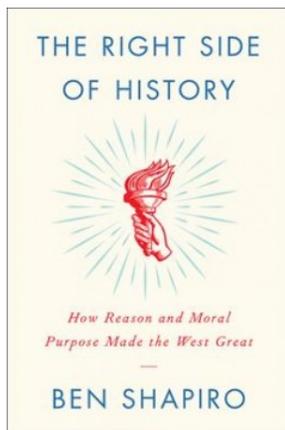

by Kathleen Norris

The best-selling author of The Cloister Walk blends history, memoir, and theology with a strong grasp of language in a unique, personal, and compelling investigation into the key words of Christian belief, such as "judgment," "prayer," "faith," and "Christ." 100,000 first printing. Tour.

The right side of history : how reason and moral purpose made the west great

by Ben Shapiro

A New York Times best-selling author and outspoken conservative commentator considers the state of the West today, asking why, if American lives have never been better than at any time in history, the United States' political, social and economic situation is beginning to erode. 50,000 first printing

The case for Trump

by Victor Davis Hanson

The author of The Second World Wars explains how a celebrity businessman with no political or military experience triumphed over 16 Republican rivals and a well-funded Democrat and argues that Trump's outsider status has made him a successful president. 60,000 first printing

The view from flyover country : dispatches from the forgotten America

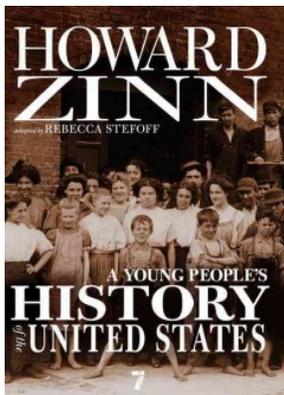

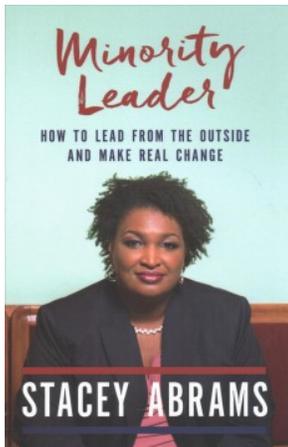

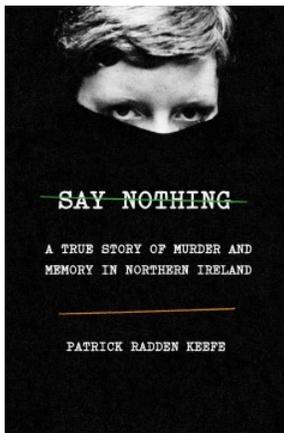

by Sarah Kendzior

A collection of penetrating essays about life in an America of dwindling opportunity, written by the St. Louis-based journalist often credited with first predicting Trump's election, is comprised of the pieces reported for Al Jazeera and discusses how labor exploitation, racism, gentrification, media bias and other aspects of a post-employment economy have given rise to an autocrat leader. Original.

Say nothing : a true story of murder and memory in Northern Ireland by Patrick Radden Keefe

Documents the notorious abduction and murder of I.R.A. Troubles victim Jean McConville in 1972 Belfast, exploring how the case reflected the brutal conflicts of Northern Ireland and their ongoing repercussions. By the author of The Snakehead

Minority leader : how to lead from the outside and make real change

by Stacey Abrams

A guide to harnessing the strengths of being an outsider by the political activist slated to become America's first black woman governor shares the story of her own humble origins and rise through educational and political arenas, counseling women of color on how to overcome self-sabotaging beliefs while highlighting the strengths of their differences to gain a competitive edge in the real world.

A young people's history of the United States : Columbus to the War on Terror

by Rebecca Stefoff

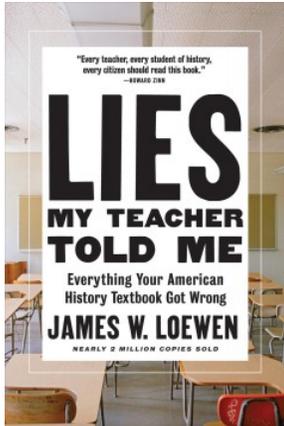

A history of the United States from its beginnings to the early twenty-first century, as told from the point of view of ordinary people, including slaves and Native Americans, to reveal the violence, racism, and injustices which occurred during key events

Franklin steak : dry-aged, live-fired, pure beef

by Aaron Franklin

"The be-all, end-all guide to cooking the perfect steak--from buying top-notch beef, seasoning to perfection, and finding or building the ideal cooking vessel--from the team behind the acclaimed and best-selling book Franklin Barbecue. Aaron Franklin may be the reigning king of brisket, but in his off-time, what he really loves to cook and eat at home is steak. So, in this follow-up to his New York Times best-selling book Franklin Barbecue, the pitmaster extraordinaire teaches readers how to cook his favorite food to absolute perfection. With their trademark rigor and expertise, Franklin and coauthor Jordan Mackay go deeper into the art and science of cooking steak than anyone has gone before. They travel the world--beyond Franklin's native Texas to Spain, Scotland, California, and Japan--to uncover global steak preparations and traditions. They demystify cattle breeds, explore the technique of dry-aging, and even teach readers how to build custom, backyard grill setups inspired by the best steak chefs in the world. For any meat-lover, backyard grill-master, or fan of Franklin's fun yet authoritative approach, this book is a must-have"

Lies my teacher told me : everything your American history textbook got wrong

by James W Loewen

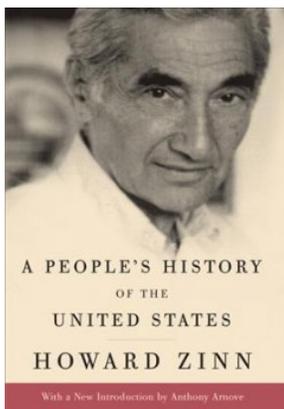

Criticizes the way history is presented in current textbooks, and suggests a fresh and more accurate approach to teaching American history

Selected poems

by John Updike

An anthology culled from the Pulitzer Prize- and National Book Award-winning writer's five decades of literary achievements features 132 of his most significant poems to share insights into his personal life and creative process.

A people's history of the United States

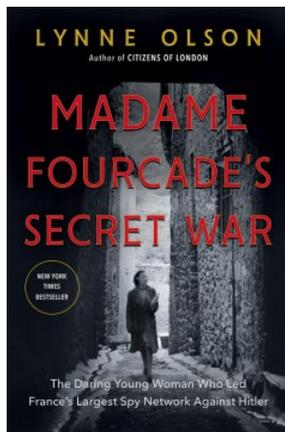

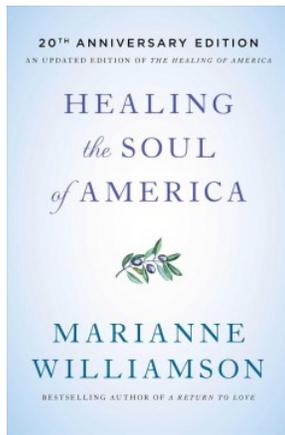

by Howard Zinn

Presents the history of the United States from the point of view of those who were exploited in the name of American progress

Healing the Soul of America

by Marianne Williamson

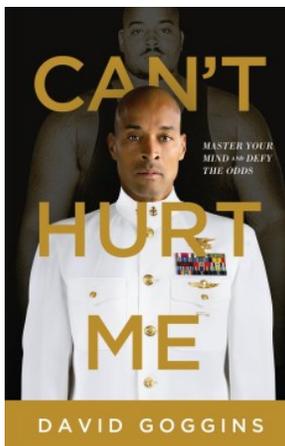

Book Annotation

Madame Fourcade's secret war : the daring young woman who led France's largest spy network against Hitler

by Lynne Olson

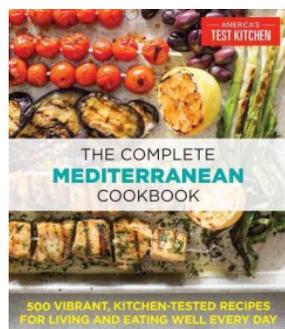

The New York Times best-selling author of Citizens of London and Last Hope Island tells the true story of the woman who headed the largest spy network in occupied France during World War II

Can't Hurt Me : Master Your Mind and Defy the Odds

by David Goggins

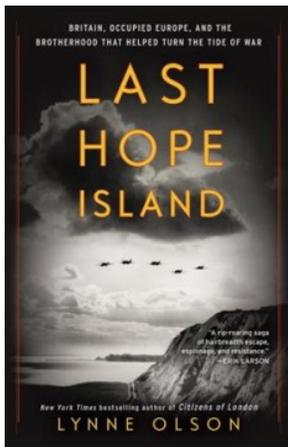

Book Annotation

The complete Mediterranean cookbook : 500 vibrant, kitchen-tested recipes for living and eating well every day

by America's Test Kitchen

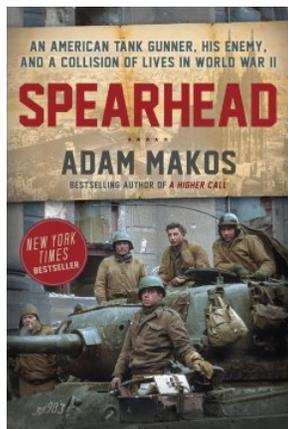

The specialists from America's Test Kitchen present hundreds of recipes designed to demystify the Mediterranean diet, in a treasury that also offers insights into how the diet has the potential for bolstering health. Original.

Last Hope Island : Britain, occupied Europe, and the brotherhood that helped turn the tide of war

by Lynne Olson

Chronicles how Britain became an island of refuge for Europeans who escaped the Nazi juggernaut, exploring how royals, soldiers, government leaders, and resistance fighters found safety and established bases of operations to reclaim their homelands

Spearhead : an American tank gunner, his enemy, and a collision of lives in World War II

by Adam Makos

The best-selling author of A Higher Call documents the lesser-known story of a World War II tank platoon and the gentle soldier behind the immortalized film footage of history's iconic duel at the great cathedral in Cologne

Visit your local library to see all our new items!

Benton Public Library

48 W. Main, Benton
Benton, Wisconsin 53803
608-759-2665

bentonpubliclibrary.com