

New Items - August 2019

Non-Fiction:

The nocturnal brain : nightmares, neuroscience, and the secret world of sleep
by Guy Leschziner

A clinical neurologist and global authority on narcolepsy presents a tour of the sleeping human brain, sharing remarkable patient stories that demonstrate the neuroscience behind what happens in different mind states.

Between the world and me by Ta-Nehisi Coates

Told through the author's own evolving understanding of the subject over the course of his life comes a bold and personal investigation into America's racial history and its contemporary echoes.

Working toward whiteness : how America's immigrants became white : the strange journey from Ellis Island to the suburbs
by David R Roediger

Book Annotation

A world lit only by fire : the medieval mind and the Renaissance-portrait of an age

by William Manchester

Chronicles the collapse of the Dark Ages and the achievements of thought and imagination that constituted the Renaissance, profiling the age's leading figures and noting key events and accomplishments

The history of white people

by Nell Irvin Painter

Traces the invention of the idea of a white race, showing how the origins of the American identity in the 18th century were tied to the elevation of white skin as the embodiment of beauty, power and intelligence and how even intellectuals insisted that only Anglo Saxons were truly American. Reprint. A best-selling book and BOMC2 selection. 13,000 first printing.

Flights

by Olga Tokarczuk

A meditative collection from Poland explores themes of travel, movement and existentialism in stories that feature protagonists who question their shifting perspectives in time and space as they tackle extreme agendas.

This land is our land : an immigrant's manifesto

by Suketu Mehta

The award-winning author of Maximum City draws on firsthand experiences and years of reporting to outline timely reasons for why the United States and the West would benefit from accepting more immigrants

If You Meet the Buddha on the Road, Kill Him! : The Pilgrimage of Psychotherapy Patients

by Sheldon Kopp

Book Annotation

Hook, loop & lock : create fun and easy locker hooked projects

by Theresa Pulido

Book Annotation

C Street : the fundamentalist threat to American democracy

by Jeff Sharlet

Argues that the Christian fundamentalist group known as "The Family" is leading a new crusade for a "God-led government" and how they fuel and fund political fundamentalism within the American government

Range : why generalists triumph in a specialized world

by David J. Epstein

The Sports Illustrated senior writer and author of the best-selling The Sports Gene shares counterintuitive advice on the most effective path to success in any domain while revealing the essential contributions of generalist, not specialist, team members

The last lion, Winston Spencer Churchill : Visions of Glory, 1874-1932

by William Manchester

Details the life and times of one of the world's most powerful leaders

The outlaw ocean : journeys across the last untamed frontier

by Ian Urbina

A Pulitzer Prize-winning New York Times investigative reporter profiles the rampant criminal and exploitative activities of the world's unmonitored ocean regions, uncovering a vast global network of industry corruption, piracy and trafficking. Illustrations.

Yellow house

by Sarah M. Broom

Describes the author's upbringing in a New Orleans East shotgun house as the unruly 13th child of a widowed mother, tracing a century of family history and the impact of class, race and Hurricane Katrina on her sense of identity.

Confederates in the attic : dispatches from the unfinished Civil War

by Tony Horwitz

A Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist leads readers on a high-spirited, revealing journey through the Old South, tangling with the forces of white rage, rebel grit, and regional pride in places where the Civil War is more than a memory. Reprint. 75,000 first printing. Tour.

This book is overdue! : how librarians and cybrarians can save us all

by Marilyn Johnson

In a celebration of libraries and the dedicated people who staff them, the author argues that librarians are more important than ever, in a book that follows cybrarians, a new breed of visionary professionals who use the web to link people and information. By the author of The Dead Beat. Reprint. 25,000 first printing.

Spying on the South : an odyssey across the American divide

by Tony Horwitz

The Pulitzer Prize-winning New Yorker writer and best-selling author of Confederates in the Attic retraces Frederick Law Olmstead's epic journey across the pre-Civil War American South in search of common ground in today's dangerously divided nation

Visit your local library to see all our new items!

Benton Public Library

48 W. Main, Benton
Benton, Wisconsin 53803
608-759-2665

bentonpubliclibrary.com