

New Items - May 2019

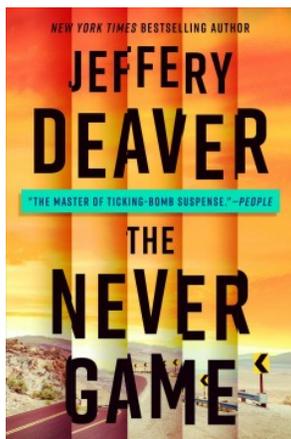

Fiction:

The night window : a Jane Hawk novel

by Dean R. Koontz

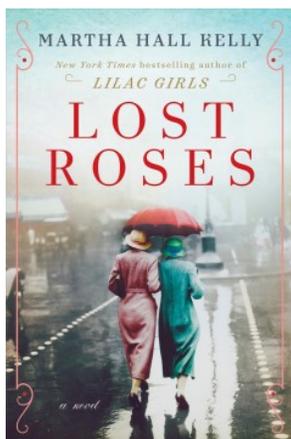

When people under Arcadian control begin showing signs of violent instability, Jane Hawk and her growing band of supporters prepare for an ultimate battle to determine America's future. By the best-selling author of The Forbidden Door

The never game

by Jeffery Deaver

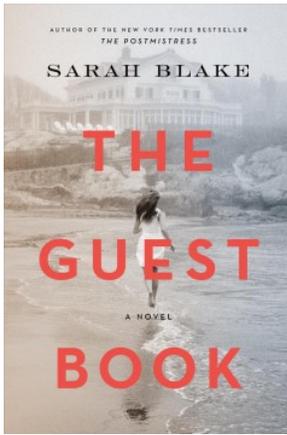

Searching for a missing woman in Silicon Valley, an expert tracker is pitted against dark elements in the billion-dollar gaming industry and a serial killer who stages scenes from his favorite game. By the award-winning author of The Bone Collector

Lost roses : a novel

by Martha Hall Kelly

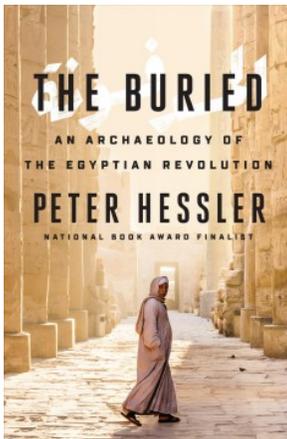

Based on true events, a tale set a generation before Lilac Girls traces the stories of three women, including Caroline Ferriday's mother, a Romanov cousin and a fortune-teller's daughter, against a backdrop of the Russian revolution and World War I

The guest book

by Sarah Blake

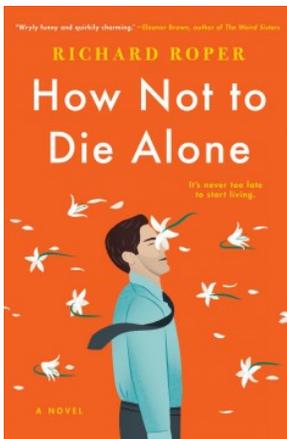

The bereaved matriarch of a powerful early-20th-century American family makes a fateful decision that reverberates throughout two subsequent generations further impacted by racism, reversed circumstances and disturbing revelations. By the best-selling author of The Postmistress

The buried : an archaeology of the Egyptian revolution

by Peter Hessler

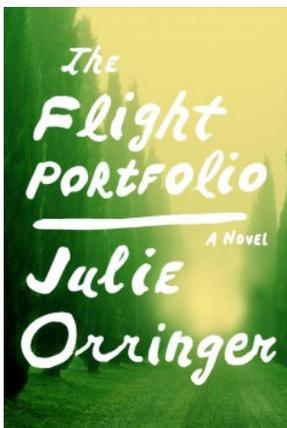

The award-winning author of River Town and Oracle Bones traces his family's residence in Cairo during the Egyptian Arab Spring, their friendships with diverse neighbors and the endurance of the region's ancient culture in a time of significant change

How not to die alone

by Richard Roper

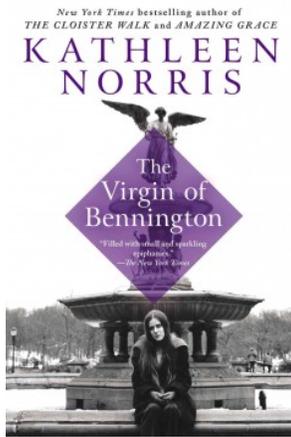

Telling a white lie that makes his coworkers believe he has a loving family at home, a lonely man stuck in a thankless public health job falls in love with a new coworker who challenges his secrets. A first novel.

The flight portfolio

by Julie Orringer

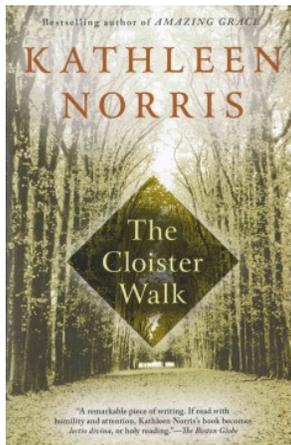

The award-winning author of The Invisible Bridge presents a long-anticipated latest novel based on the story of Varian Fry's extraordinary effort to save the lives and work of Jewish artists fleeing the Holocaust

The virgin of Bennington

by Kathleen Norris

The author of Amazing Grace and Cloister Walk shares this memoir of life at liberal, bohemian Bennington College in the 1960s and her friendships with Jim Carroll, Denise Levertov, Erica Jong, James Merrill, Stanley Kunitz, and other notable poets. Reprint.

The cloister walk

by Kathleen Norris

A reverent study of the monastic world assesses the meaning of the cloistered life in modern times, journeying through a liturgical year to capture the relevance and spiritual significance of the religious life. Reprint. Tour.

Supply of heroes

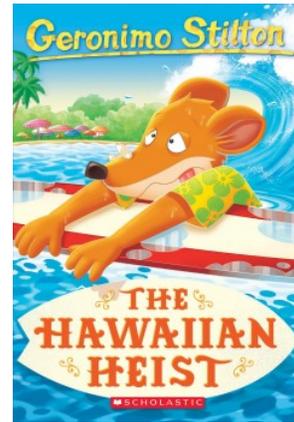

by James Carroll

At the height of World War I, Douglas Tyrrell leaves Ireland and his wife to fight in the English army, and his sister meets a revolutionary who is determined to fight for Irish independence, even if it means siding with the Germans

The Hawaiian heist

by Geronimo Stilton

When a celebrated goldsmith from Hawaii creates a necklace for a famous actress, rumors that the necklace is about to be stolen prompt Geronimo Stilton's investigation to identify the thief. Original.

Bone : out from Boneville

by Jeff Smith

What could go wrong as the Bone cousins try to return to Boneville after visiting the village of Barrenville? Plenty. Phoney risks everything on one last get-rich-quick scheme for the annual Great Cow Race, but when his plans go disastrously awry, Boneville seems farther away than ever. Ominous signs indicate that a war is brewing, and Fone finds himself helping his friends defend their valley from a formidable enemy. Tween.

Benton Public Library now has books 1-6 of this series!

Visit your local library to see all our new items!

Benton Public Library

48 W. Main, Benton
Benton, Wisconsin 53803
608-759-2665

bentonpubliclibrary.com